

As you are aware that the internal elections for Lok Satta Party (LSP) are underway. As a member of LSP NRI District, we need to elect Delegates, who will in turn elect the LSP office bearers. Elections for the Delegates for LSP NRI district will be done by e-mail ballot, which is a fully automated process. Because of this we may have some time advantage and we have decided to extend this time advantage to soliciting more nominations. So we have decided to extend the nomination date to end of the day March 25th US Time PST. That will be the same time for withdrawing the nominations as well. The final result date will however remain same as before. Below is changed schedule.

- March 18th 2013 -> March 25th 2013 - Dates to send nominations for delegates to nrvoting@loksatta.org email address.
- March 25nd 2013 -> Last date to withdraw nominations and evaluate the eligibility.
- March 25th 2013 -> Last date to send profiles that can be sent out to voters.
- March 28th 2013 -> Polling day.
- March 30th 2013 -> Results.

Please use this extension to file in your nomination for Delegate election for represent LSP NRI District.

Best Regards,
