

Lok Satta Party condemns assault on Lecturers

Written by Administrator

Saturday, 28 August 2010 13:27 -

Lok Satta Party today condemned the students' assault on Lecturers discharging their duties on the Osmania University campus. Lok Satta leaders Mr. G. Raja Reddy and Mr. P. Ravimaruth said in a statement that the incident mars the image of the prestigious Osmania University.

Recourse to physical assault is unwanted in a democracy. None in Telangana would support such instances of anarchy, they said.

Lok Satta leaders appealed to political parties, civil society organizations to behave responsibly and asked people of all regions not to succumb to passions.